

Becoming Mrs. Lewis

Author: Patti Callahan

Genre: Historical Fiction

Average Rating: 5 / 5

Book Club Questions:

1. Were you familiar with Joy Davidman prior to reading this book?
2. What about CS Lewis? Was he as you expected? How was he different?
3. Callahan portrayed JRR Tolkien as rather oppositional towards Joy, as a person and in her relationship with Jack. What did you think of this depiction?
4. Did you foresee the affair between Joy's first husband and her cousin? What did you think about how Joy handled the situation?
5. What did you think about Jack and Joy's relationship? Did you think it evolved well?
6. What did you learn from Joy's story? Did anything about it resonate with you and your own story?
7. A big theme that was present is that life is messy. What other themes or truths did you find that you could take away? Did it help you connect with this book more or less?
8. What did you expect when you first picked up this book? Did you judge the book by its cover?
9. If you were in Joy's position what would you have done differently?
10. Did you think this book had too much focus on religion and faith? Or was it done well?